The parties further agree that upon U.S. Bank assuming the duties of Special Servicer under the Servicing Agreement, all references to "Special Servicer" in this Agreement shall, unless otherwise provided or the context otherwise requires, be deemed to refer to U.S. Bank acting in such capacity. The date of the beginning of the performance of services by NCO referenced in the foregoing sentence shall be the "Effective Date" for purposes of this Agreement (it being acknowledged that NCO shall commence performance of the Services set forth herein immediately upon being notified of the assumption by the Back-Up Special Servicer of the duties of the Special Servicer under the Special Servicing Agreement or such later date (if any) as shall be specified in such written notice). In order for NCO to carry out its duties under this Agreement with respect to the Services, as of the Effective Date, the initial Special Servicer shall cause the Servicers to provide to NCO (a) consumer file data in the manner and form described in Exhibit A (as amended from time to time by Special Servicer), and (b) view-only access to borrower ASL accounts on the Servicers' systems. NCO shall use such data for the purposes of performing the Services, risk modeling, providing reports as set forth in this Agreement, forecasting and billing.

(a) NCO shall provide reports to Special Servicer with respect to the results of Default Prevention Services performed by NCO with the frequency and having the content described in Exhibit C ("Default Prevention Reports").

(b) NCO shall perform Default Prevention Services in order to maximize "cures" of delinquent loans. "Cures" include: (i) incenting ASL borrowers who are thirty (30) days past due but less than one hundred and eighty (180) days past due to become less than thirty (30) days past due, and (ii) incenting borrowers who are one hundred and eighty (180) days past due with respect to whom the appropriate Servicer has not yet submitted a Claims Package to become less than thirty (30) days past due.

2.3 Default Collection Services. NCO shall perform Default Collection Services in conformity with those Default Collection Services set forth herein and in Exhibit D attached hereto. NCO shall use Dedicated Staff to perform Default Collection Services. Special Servicer shall cause the Servicers to provide to NCO all documents and information specified in the NCO shall provide the Default Collection Reports set forth in Exhibit E. NCO shall assign defaulted ASLs as needed to optimize collection.

(iii) From time to time Special Servicer may instruct NCO with respect to collection costs, default interest rates and other adjustments to be made to account balances submitted pursuant to Special Servicer's direction by Servicers to NCO with a Claims Package ("Default Charges"). Special Servicer represents and warrants that all such Default Charges shall conform to all Requirements of Law. Any breach of the foregoing representation shall be subject of indemnification by Special Servicer under Section 8. NCO shall have no responsibility to attempt to collect any Default Charges, whether or not authorized by the ASL documents, except as instructed by Special Servicer.

(b) Collection and Credit Reporting Services.

(i) NCO will use all reasonable and lawful efforts to collect the full amount due on all accounts placed with it by Special Servicer for collection. Special Servicer may place with NCO various First, Second and Third Placements, as defined in Exhibit D attached hereto and incorporated herein. The full amount due on each account will consist of principal; accrued interest; late fees, if any; and any collection costs and attorneys' fees awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a final judgment and recoverable under the terms of the loan agreement, as well as extrajudicial collection costs recoverable under applicable law. NCO will keep full and accurate records of all borrower Contacts and other collection activity. NCO may negotiate and revise any borrower's repayment schedule in any manner approved in writing by an authorized representative or agent of Special Servicer. NCO may not reduce the amount due on any account, or otherwise decrease the borrower's aggregate obligation on the account, without specific prior written consent of an authorized representative or agent of Special Servicer, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

(ii) NCO will report the status of each post-default account whenever placed to the three national credit reporting agencies currently known as Equifax, TransUnion and Experian (f/k/a TRW), subject to the provisions of Article V. Reporting the status of an account shall include reporting the status with respect to all co-debtors.

(iii) Special Servicer reserves the right to restrict or otherwise limit at any time, from time to time, the manner or means to be used by NCO in collecting any account, which restrictions may be communicated to NCO by Special Servicer orally or in writing, at Special Servicer's sole discretion.

(c) Source and Timing of Fee Payments. Notwithstanding the fee provisions set forth in Article III, fees due NCO for Default Collection Services, including costs and expenses related to litigation, will be paid on a loan-by-loan basis out of funds held in the Account (as defined in Section 2.6). Fees will be billed weekly and NCO may withdraw billed fees from the Account at such time (i.e., weekly) as it forwards the Account balances to Special Servicer.

2.4 Litigation Management. As part of the Default Collection Services, NCO shall administer collection litigation as described in this section and in Exhibit D attached hereto. Special Servicer may also from time to time designate loans as to which assessment and recovery of collection costs from the borrower in an extrajudicial context are allowed by applicable law, by way of contract or otherwise. NCO will use all reasonable and lawful efforts to collect such collection costs as directed by Special Servicer.

NCO may, with Special Servicer's prior written approval, forward accounts for litigation to an attorney licensed to practice law in the applicable jurisdiction and acceptable to Special Servicer. NCO will handle all routine communication with the attorney on Special Servicer's behalf and will be responsible for monitoring the attorney's performance in litigating the case, collecting on the accounts pre-judgment and collecting on any judgment or settlement. Except in the case where there is no media availability, any decision regarding settlement, dismissal of the action, or the removal of an attorney will require Special Servicer's written consent. Special Servicer recognizes that back up media, sworn statements of account, affidavits and other documentation may be required to pursue legal treatment on accounts placed with NCO. In the event that documentation is required, Special Servicer will comply with NCO's request for media and follow request procedures as agreed upon in work standards. If Special Servicer can not comply with media or documentation requests within a fourteen (14) day period, NCO reserves the right to dismiss any legal action, with or without prejudice and close and return the account back to Special Servicer. In the event that lack of media or documentation results in liability for NCO or Special Servicer, Special Servicer bears the burden of indemnification. At all times, Special Servicer and not NCO will be the client of the collection attorney. Special Servicer agrees promptly to provide all available documentation, written testimony, witnesses and other reasonably necessary materials and assistance requested by NCO in support of such litigation.

(a) NCO shall be responsible for selecting and directly supervising collection attorneys. NCO will submit lists of collection attorneys used by NCO to Special Servicer, and Special Servicer may, at any time, prohibit the submission of new litigation files to an attorney on its behalf.

(b) All collection attorneys shall be paid by NCO and Special Servicer shall have no obligation to pay such attorneys.

(c) NCO will provide evidentiary support for collection attorneys, including basic factual orientation, copies of documents, records of account balances, affidavits and testimony, as reasonably required. Special Servicer will instruct Servicers to provide original documents to NCO upon request from NCO. For this purpose, Special Servicer on behalf of the Trusts hereby appoints NCO as keeper of the applicable Trust's records of all ASLs that are the subject of NCO administration.

(d) NCO shall supervise the progress of collection litigation and review the progress of their assigned litigation quarterly. Such review shall include the establishment and prosecution of appropriate post-judgment enforcement, to the extent lawful.

(e) NCO may compromise ASL claims in exchange for immediate payment of [REDACTED] of all outstanding principal, interest and other amounts due to Special Servicer. Additional settlement authority given to NCO, if any, is described in Exhibit F, attached hereto. Special Servicer agrees to designate a business contact with authority to review and approve collection settlement proposals with NCO.

(f) NCO shall promptly transmit to Special Servicer any pleadings or other documents it receives relating to counterclaims naming Special Servicer or any Trust in collection litigation. Upon request, NCO shall assist Special Servicer with respect to management of counterclaims naming Special Servicer or any Trust as a party, including management of local counsel in consultation with Special Servicer.

(g) All court costs and related expenses, including hourly billing charges, incurred in connection with a legal proceeding shall be paid as set forth in Section 2.3(c). For audit and reconciliation purposes, NCO shall itemize costs for each borrower and the amount and purpose of each expense. Special Servicer will not advance the pre-payment of such costs, and will only reimburse costs that have actually been incurred. The attorney must receive Special Servicer's or NCO's prior written approval before incurring any expense (other than a filing fee, process server fee, or other court cost) in excess of $500.

2.5 Special Accounts.

(a) In the event any debtor with respect to any ASL that is the subject of Services becomes a debtor under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, NCO shall immediately cease all Services and submit the file to Special Servicer unless Special Servicer otherwise directs in writing.

Special Servicer undertakes that it will not send to NCO accounts for collection on any indebtedness that it has reason to believe are subject to any bankruptcy proceeding and that it will indemnify and hold harmless NCO from any and all claims and legal actions asserted against NCO, and all money damages and legal costs incurred by NCO, to the extent that the same result solely from Special Servicer's failure to observe such requirement.

(b) In the event any debtor with respect to any ASL that is the subject of Services is deceased, NCO may accept from the Servicers the documentation specified under "Death Claim" under the Servicing Guidelines and may collect the ASL.

2.6 Special Servicer Funds Account. NCO will credit all funds received from debtors into an FDIC-insured trust fund account (the "Account") for Special Servicer in trust for the benefit of each Trust, which will segregate said funds from NCO's own funds and from the funds of all other NCO clients. Any interest earned on the Account will be forwarded to Special Servicer twice annually at a time Special Servicer directs, or upon reasonable notice by Special Servicer. For purposes of this Agreement and except as set forth in this Agreement, the funds in the Account will be the sole property of Special Servicer in trust for each Trust, and NCO will have no right to pay such funds to any person other than Special Servicer except as specifically authorized in this Agreement. NCO will remit to Special Servicer on a weekly basis on a specified day of every week (or at different periodic intervals chosen by Special Servicer), by wire transfer to a Special Servicer-designated account, all funds in the Account representing payments received by NCO for the previous week (or alternative periodic interval chosen by Special Servicer), except fees owed to NCO for Default Collection Services (which shall be payable to NCO as set forth in Section 2.3(c)). NCO will submit a report with such wire, described more fully in Exhibit E attached hereto. Special Servicer will promptly notify NCO of any payment that Special Servicer receives directly from a debtor whose account has been assigned to NCO, and will promptly remit to NCO the fee due to NCO with respect to such payment.

2.7 Tax Reporting. NCO shall provide on Special Servicer's behalf all tax reporting required under the federal Internal Revenue Code on defaulted ASLs serviced hereunder, including but not limited to reporting required under sections 1098 and 1099 thereof.

2.8 Early Awareness Services.

(a) NCO shall perform Early Awareness Services in conformity with those Early Awareness Services set forth herein and in Exhibit G attached hereto. NCO shall use Dedicated Staff to develop and carry out a "Borrower Repayment Education And Counseling" program for borrowers about to enter repayment. The specific objective of this program is to educate borrowers of upcoming payment requirements and advise borrowers, if authorized under the circumstances, of the existence of deferment, forbearance and modified graduated repayments ("MGRS") alternatives under applicable Program Guidelines, to reduce the number and percentage of borrowers becoming subsequently delinquent in the repayment process.

(a) NCO's employees and/or agents are adequately trained to perform the Services with reasonable diligence, in a professional manner, and in compliance with any and all applicable laws and regulations and that NCO's Services will be in compliance with Federal,

Any consent by Special Servicer to the engagement of a Subservicer under this Section 2.12 shall not relieve NCO of any of its obligations under this Agreement. NCO shall be responsible for the performance or nonperformance of its Subservicers as if such performance or nonperformance were that of NCO. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the entities listed on Schedule 2.12 attached hereto shall be deemed approved Subservicers hereunder.

(c) Absence of Conflicts. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by NCO nor the performance by NCO of its obligations hereunder will result in (i) a violation of the articles of incorporation or charter documents of NCO, (ii) a breach of, or a default under any contract, agreement, instrument, lease, commitment, franchise, license, permit or authorization to which NCO is a party or by which it or its assets are bound, which breach or default would have a material adverse effect on its business or financial condition or its ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, or (iii) a violation by NCO of any Requirements of Law, which violation would have a material adverse effect on NCO's business or financial condition or its ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(d) Consents and Approvals. NCO has obtained any and all consents, approvals or authorizations of, and made any and all declarations, filings or registrations with, any Governmental Authority, or any other person, required to be obtained or made by NCO in order to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, except where the failure to do so would not have a material adverse effect on its business or financial condition or its ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) Litigation. There is no action, order, writ, injunction, judgment or decree outstanding or claim, suit, litigation, proceeding, labor dispute, arbitral action or investigation pending, or to the actual knowledge of NCO threatened, against or relating to NCO that would likely have a material adverse effect on this Agreement or on NCO's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(f) Best Efforts. NCO will utilize its best efforts and competence in rendering services and in performing its duties hereunder and shall not use any method prohibited by federal, state or local laws, regulations or procedures, including but not limited to any applicable consumer protection or bankruptcy laws, regulations or procedures in collecting the account balances. . NCO will promptly give oral and written notice to Special Servicer of any federal, state or local administrative or court proceeding affecting NCO or any of its officers, agents, servants or employees in the collection of Special Servicer's accounts.

(g) Legal Proceedings. In the event of any lawsuit in which counterclaims are interposed by a debtor, or where a debtor shall make any other claim against Special Servicer or any Trusts, the same shall be immediately referred by NCO to Special Servicer and Special Servicer shall have the right to intercede and defend such action. No criminal proceedings, real property executions, bailable attachments, commitment orders or other enforcement proceedings, except for the issuance of a subpoena to examine the debtor and restraining notices, shall be instituted by NCO without prior written approval of Special Servicer.

(b) No later than thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of any review, inspection or audit, Special Servicer shall provide to NCO written notice of its intent to perform a review, inspection or audit, which notice shall include in reasonable detail the scope thereof and the supporting documentation to be requested. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of any such notice, NCO shall notify Special Servicer, in writing of any objections to the scope of the review, inspection or audit or the supporting documentation requested, it being understood that any objections of NCO must be based upon a reasonable and documented belief that such review, inspection, audit or documentation is not reasonably related to NCO's obligations under this Agreement or would require the disclosure of proprietary information (other than information that is proprietary solely as a result of this Agreement). Special Servicer and NCO shall cooperate in good faith to resolve objections with respect to any review, inspection or audit proposed by Special Servicer and such review, inspection or audit shall not commence until such objections are resolved. In the event the parties are not able to resolve such objections, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 11.2.

(c) Any review, inspection or audit to be performed by Special Servicer pursuant to this Section 6.2 shall be conducted only during normal business hours and with reasonable advance notice, using reasonable care not to cause damage and not to interrupt the normal business operations of NCO.

(d) NCO will engage, at its sole expense, an unrelated American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA") certified public accounting firm acceptable to Special Servicer to conduct reviews of NCO's general controls and practices associated with NCO's facilities and Subservicers facilities engaged in providing Services, as well as the controls associated with the services and the programs used to provide Services. The scope of the audit shall include all such matters as NCO's auditor deems necessary or required to meet regulatory compliance standards, including but not limited to an examination of the record keeping system and other equipment and software used by NCO. Such reviews shall be performed at such frequency and times as NCO shall determine, but shall be performed at least once annually. Within thirty (30) days of its receipt by NCO, NCO shall provide Special Servicer with a copy of each report and the related working papers submitted by NCO's independent accountants regarding any of the matters set forth in this paragraph. All such reviews shall comply with AICPA SAS-70 standards or equivalent thereof, and the reports obtained shall be of the type generally referred to (depending on the publication) as either type “2” or “B”, and shall include an unqualified opinion on the operating effectiveness of NCO’s controls. All such reviews shall also comply with Security Standards Certification ISO 17799/BS7799 or equivalent thereof. If a SAS 70 or equivalent audit reveals that the services provided by NCO do not cause NCO’s operations to meet the auditor’s recommendation, then NCO shall promptly provide such further services as are necessary to bring its operations into conformance with the auditor’s recommendations to such level and degree, at no cost to Special Servicer.

6.3 Regulatory Agency Requirements.

(a) NCO understands and acknowledges that Special Servicer may be subject to examination by any federal, state or local governmental or quasi-governmental officials with regulatory authority over Special Servicer and its affiliates. NCO agrees to cooperate fully with any examination or inquiry by any such officials or other regulatory body or agency. NCO further acknowledges that Special Servicer, as a regulated financial institution, is required to engage in ongoing oversight of its relationship with NCO, including, but not limited to, reviewing NCO’s compliance with privacy laws and regulations, insurance coverage, and performance under this Agreement. NCO agrees to notify Special Servicer promptly in writing in the event it experiences any material adverse change, including but not limited to, material financial difficulty, other catastrophic event, material change in strategic goals, or significant staffing changes relative to its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Within thirty (30) days of its receipt, to the extent NCO is permitted to do so, NCO shall provide Special Servicer with a copy of the results of any audit performed by a federal, state or local regulator, but only to the extent such audit relates to compliance by NCO with applicable law and to the Services performed by NCO for Special Servicer hereunder. If such audit reveals that the Services provided by NCO do not cause NCO’s operations to meet the auditor’s recommendation, then NCO shall provide such further Services as are necessary to bring its operations into conformance with the auditor’s recommendations to such level and degree, at no cost to Special Servicer.

ARTICLE VII - CONFIDENTIALITY

7.1 Confidentiality. NCO acknowledges and agrees that all information provided to NCO by Special Servicer is considered confidential or proprietary and is provided to NCO solely to enable NCO to perform the Services and related functions set forth in Article II of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “Confidential Information” of Special Servicer means all confidential or proprietary information and documentation and data (whether technical, commercial or other in nature) of such party, whether or not marked as such and/or whether now in existence or hereafter created including, without limitation all Borrower Data and any other Trust data. For purposes of this Agreement, “Borrower Data” means any and all data and information of any kind or nature provided to NCO by or on behalf of Special Servicer or arising out of or in connection with this Agreement with respect or relating in any way to borrowers individually or in the aggregate. NCO shall hold the Confidential Information of Special Servicer in confidence and shall not disclose nor use such Confidential Information other than for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement without prior written consent of Special Servicer. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, NCO shall limit the use and circulation of such information, even within its own organization, solely to the extent necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement. Confidential Information shall not include information that: (i) has been disclosed in the public domain prior to the date hereof; (ii) becomes, through no fault nor action of either party, hereafter disclosed in the public domain; (iii) is now or comes into the possession of NCO without any obligation of confidentiality. Special Servicer acknowledges that NCO and/or its affiliates may have legitimately obtained Borrower Data through prior relationships and that such data is held under restrictions arising out of such relationships and not under this Agreement. In addition, the substance of the negotiations of this Agreement and the terms of this Agreement are Confidential Information subject to the restrictions contained in this Agreement. NCO shall not be considered to have breached its obligation by disclosing Confidential Information of the Special Servicer in response to the order of any competent court or governmental agency; provided, however, that upon receipt of such order, NCO shall promptly provide to the Special Servicer notice of such request to enable the Special Servicer to seek an appropriate protection order or take other action to assure the confidential handling of the Confidential Information. All such Confidential Information shall remain the exclusive property of Special Servicer.

7.2 Restricted Use. NCO agrees not to utilize any Confidential Information, unless it is necessary to do so in order to fulfill an obligation under this Agreement. NCO also agrees that it will not sell, disclose, transfer, or rent any Confidential Information to any third party nor will it use any Confidential Information on behalf of any third party, without the express written permission of Special Servicer. NCO shall provide all notices and perform all other activities required of it to comply with the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and regulations promulgated thereunder and any other applicable federal, state and local privacy laws in connection with the Confidential Information received in connection with this Agreement.

7.3 Injunctive Relief. NCO acknowledges that money damages may be both incalculable and an insufficient remedy for any breach of this provision by NCO and that any such breach may cause Special Servicer, the Trusts and others irreparable harm. Accordingly, NCO agrees that in the event of any breach of this Article VII, Special Servicer or any Trust, in addition to any other remedies at law or in equity that it may have, shall be entitled without requirement of posting a bond or other security, to equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance without proof of actual damages.

7.4 Information Protection and Security.

(a) NCO may receive or otherwise have access to Borrower Data in connection with providing Services to Special Servicer pursuant to the terms of the Agreement. NCO shall implement and maintain an appropriate security program for Borrower Data designed to meet the following Objectives (defined below) of the Interagency Guidelines Establishing Standards for Safeguarding Customer Information pursuant to the authority of Section 501(b) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999. "Objectives" means a program designed to (i) ensure the security and confidentiality of Borrower Data; (ii) protect against any anticipated threats or hazards to the security or integrity to Borrower Data, and (iii) protect against unauthorized access to or use of Borrower Data that could result in substantial harm or inconvenience to any Special Servicer or any borrower. NCO shall provide Special Servicer on or prior to the Effective Date and thereafter, upon request, with a copy of its Information Security and Assurance Policy and any updates or amendments thereto. NCO agrees that upon reasonable notice and at NCO's convenience, Special Servicer or any agent or representative thereof may come to NCO's place of business and review the specifics of NCO's security plan with NCO. It is understood and agreed that NCO shall not be required to have a security program in place that implements every security measure listed in each paragraph of Section III C of Appendix A to 12 CFR § 30 provided that NCO's security program is appropriate to address the level of risk and otherwise meets the Objectives. Special Servicer, its internal and external auditors and regulatory agencies ("Auditors") shall be permitted, during normal business hours, to audit NCO's security program upon provision of reasonable prior notice and provision of an agenda for the audit requirements. NCO shall be subject to said audits as long as NCO continues to maintain, store or have access to Borrower Data.

(b) NCO presently maintains and agrees it will continue to maintain appropriate physical, electronic, procedural and technical safeguards to protect all Borrower Data from unauthorized disclosure, misuse, alteration, destruction or other compromise that are consistent with appropriate industry practices and no less stringent than those used to protect the Confidential Information of NCO.

(c) As part of its information security program, NCO shall take appropriate measures to properly dispose of Borrower Data. These measures will include, at a minimum:

- i. Burning, pulverizing or shredding of papers containing Borrower Data so that the Borrower Data cannot practicably be read or reconstructed;
- ii. Ensuring the destruction or erasure of electronic media containing Borrower Data so that the Borrower Data cannot practicably be read or reconstructed; and/or
- iii. Ensuring that any third party who performs the activities described in (i) and (ii) on behalf of NCO above does so in a manner consistent with this Section.

(d) NCO shall ensure that it does not retain Confidential Information of Special Servicer for longer than it needs such information to perform its obligations hereunder. NCO's disposal policy shall require that such information is reviewed and destroyed on a routine basis consistent with NCO's disposal policy. NCO shall, upon the reasonable request of Special Servicer, provide to Special Servicer the certificate of destruction as prescribed by Special Servicer. It is understood that information sent in an intangible or electronic format cannot be removed, erased or otherwise deleted from archival systems (also known as "computer or system back-ups") but that such information will continue to be protected under the confidentiality requirements contained in this Agreement for as long as such information remains accessible and/or vulnerable to unauthorized access use or disclosure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, NCO may retain an archival copy of any document for its permanent records to the extent required by applicable law or regulation of NCO's document retention policy. The rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement will survive any return or destruction of Confidential Information.

(e) NCO shall have in place and follow a routine destruction policy for all Confidential Information of Special Servicer (whether in electronic, paper or other form) related to NCO's performance under this Agreement. No such materials will be retained longer than such period as is set forth in NCO's policy period for retention unless mandated under this Agreement or by applicable law.

7.5 Security Breach. In the event NCO knows or reasonably believes that there has been any unauthorized acquisition of or access to data that compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of Borrower Data maintained by or for NCO (a "Breach"), NCO shall take the following actions:

- (a) Notify Special Servicer of such breach as soon as practicable;
- (b) Identify to Special Servicer, at no cost to Special Servicer, what specific Borrower Data, by borrower and/or account number has or may have been breached;
- (c) Monitor, or cause to be monitored at NCO's sole expense, any affected accounts for any unusual activity for a period of 12 months from the discovery of the breach;
- (d) Take such commercially reasonable measures, at the sole cost of NCO, as may be requested by the Special Servicer to contain and control the incident to prevent further unauthorized access;
- (e) Remedy the circumstances that permitted such breach to occur; and
- (f) Cooperate with Special Servicer as necessary to facilitate Special Servicer's compliance with any applicable Federal or state law regarding unauthorized access of Borrower Data.

In addition to and not by way of limitation of any and all damages for which NCO is or may become obligated under this Agreement to pay to owner (i.e., the applicable Trust), NCO shall fully reimburse Special Servicer for the actual costs of mailing notices to individuals whose data has or may have been breached, to the extent such breach is the result of NCO's breach of this Agreement, NCO's failure to conform to applicable law, or NCO's negligence.

The obligations contained in this Section 7.5 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII - INDEMNIFICATION AND EXCLUSION

8.1 Indemnity.

(a) NCO shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Special Servicer and the applicable Trust, or any affiliate or subsidiary of Special Servicer or any Trust (each a "Special Servicer Indemnified Party") from and against any and all damages arising out of or resulting from third party claims relating to (i) the breach of any representation or warranty, covenant or agreement of NCO contained in this Agreement; (ii) any inaccurate information or inaccurate materials provided by NCO to Special Servicer in connection with providing the Services. In addition, NCO shall reimburse Special Servicer for all costs incurred by Special Servicer resulting from third party investigation of the acts and practices of NCO, including expenses related to compliance with any third party subpoena or with any other discovery proceeding, if such investigation is due to the negligent act of NCO or breach of this Agreement by NCO.

(b) NCO shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless each Special Servicer Indemnified Party from and against all damages arising out of or resulting from any action by a third party against such Special Servicer Indemnified Party that is based on any claim that any

(c) Special Servicer shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless NCO or any affiliate or subsidiary of NCO (each a "NCO Indemnified Party") from and against all damages arising out of or resulting from any action by a third party against such NCO Indemnified Party that is based on any claim resulting from (i) the breach of any representation or warranty, covenant or agreement of Special Servicer contained in this Agreement; (ii) any information or materials provided by Special Servicer to NCO for use in providing the Services; or (iii) the nature or use of Special Servicer's products or services. In addition, Special Servicer shall reimburse NCO for all costs incurred by NCO resulting from third party investigation of the acts and practices of Special Servicer, its subsidiaries and affiliates, including expenses related to compliance with any third party subpoena or with any other discovery proceeding.

(d) An indemnified party which intends to claim indemnification under Section 8.1 shall promptly notify the indemnitor in writing of any action, claim or liability with respect to which the indemnified party intends to claim such indemnification. The indemnified party shall permit the indemnitor, at its discretion, to settle any such action, claim or liability and agrees to the control of such defense or settlement by the indemnitor; provided, however, such settlement does not adversely affect the indemnified party's rights hereunder or impose any obligations on the indemnified party in addition to those set forth herein in order for it to exercise such rights. No such action, claim or liability shall be settled without the prior written consent of the indemnitor and the indemnitor shall not be responsible for any attorneys' fees or other costs incurred other than as provided herein. The indemnified party shall cooperate fully with the indemnitor and its legal representatives in the investigation and defense of any action, claim or liability covered by this indemnification. The indemnified party shall have the right, but not the obligation, to be represented by counsel of its selection and expense

(e) This provision shall not be construed to limit the rights, obligations, liabilities, claims or defenses of either party or any indemnified party which arise as a matter of law or pursuant to any other provision of this Agreement.

8.2 Exclusions from Liability.

(a) Except as provided in this Article VIII, in no event shall NCO or Special Servicer be liable for consequential, incidental, punitive, special, or indirect damages.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, neither party's liability hereunder shall exceed an amount equal to the service fees payable by Special Servicer to NCO in the month immediately preceding the claim to which such liability relates, multiplied by twelve (12).

(c) The limitation of liability provisions of subsections 8.2(a) and 8.2(b) do not apply to liability that is the result of either party's breach of (i) the confidentiality, privacy, or security obligations or provisions contained in this Agreement or (ii) such party's indemnification obligations.

(d) The limitation of liability provisions of subsections 8.2(a) and 8.2(b) also do not apply to any third party claim against an indemnified party arising out of the indemnifying party's failure to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, if such claim results in such indemnified party being liable for consequential, incidental, special or indirect damages to such third party. Such damages will be considered to be direct damages incurred by the indemnified party.

The obligations set forth in this Article VIII shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX - TERM AND TERMINATION

10.2 NCO shall annually test its Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans and shall update in a timely manner such Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans. NCO shall provide Special Servicer with a summary report of the results of such testing annually. If Special Servicer requests, it shall be permitted to participate in NCO's testing of its Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans to the extent such test relates to Services provided to Special Servicer.

10.3 Prior to execution of this Agreement, NCO shall provide a copy of its Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans to Special Servicer (including in electronic form). Any material changes to NCO's Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans will be subject to Special Servicer's prior written consent which shall not be unreasonably withheld and will conform to reasonable commercial and industry standards for such plans. Special Servicer, or its designated representative, shall be entitled to review such Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans annually during the term of this Agreement at NCO's corporate headquarters.

10.4 Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, NCO's Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans required under this Agreement must meet Special Servicer's Recovery Time Objective ("RTO") and Recovery Point Objective ("RPO") for the business function being serviced, as defined below, unless events or circumstances beyond NCO's control prevent NCO from implementing its Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plans:
